STUDYING HERE - the bath spa community

Studying at university is a new and exciting experience.

You'll be presented with lots of choices. For example, you can choose the modules you want to take that interest you most or fit with your career aspirations. You'll have more choice in how and when you study, fitting in self-directed study around lectures and tutorials. And you'll be able to choose what activities you do outside your study – anything from part-time work to clubs, societies, sports and volunteering. You might even choose to study abroad as part of your degree.

So you'll develop a lot of skills while you're at university - not least, time management skills!

You'll quickly become part of the Bath Spa community. This is a friendly and supportive place where creativity in its broadest sense is valued and nurtured – whether you're studying the arts, sciences, humanities or social sciences. We encourage our students to think differently, making connections across traditional subject boundaries and coming up with new ideas. We like to challenge you – and be challenged by you!

Our aim is that you'll leave Bath Spa University as ambitious global citizens, ready to make a difference. You'll have developed a network of contacts that will stand you in good stead in your future employment - and a network of friends who will probably last a lifetime!

but don't just take our word for it...

“ I chose Bath Spa because out of all the acting courses I auditioned for, this was by far my favourite. The three year BA (Hons) included everything and more I could hope to gain from a professional acting course. Each year group is split into smaller classes, which is important for a subject such as acting. You also have one-to-one tutorials with the tutors to discuss your progress throughout the duration of the course ”

“ Bath Spa University is a vibrant and exciting campus of creatives with fantastic facilities at their fingertips. I wanted to be a part of this and the Commercial Music course seemed perfect. The University caters to you as an individual and creative, embracing differences and promoting collaboration. The campus is beautiful and much smaller than bigger universities, creating a much more close knit community. I regularly bump into someone I know even when just popping in. The facilities are fantastic. I seem to live in the studio half the time, working with different artists and just generally creating stuff. There is a real vibrant hub in Bath as well. ”

THE STUDENT AGREEMENT

It's important that as Bath Spa students you know what's expected of you, and what you can expect from the University.

That's why we've produced a Student Agreement in partnership with the Students' Union and Students Academic Reps that sets this out very clearly.

It covers both academic issues and more general requirements. These are just some examples of what's in the Student Agreement – to see it in full please see:
www.bathspa.ac.uk/university-life/students-union/student-agreement

You'll also be given a copy when you start your course.

For example:

- The University will treat you in a courteous, fair, timely, just and legal manner, in accordance with University regulations and legislation.

And you are expected to act in a courteous, fair, timely, just and legal manner in your dealings with the University.

- The University will provide opportunities for you to give feedback, raise concerns, queries and complaints on the quality of academic programmes, facilities, services and developments within the University.

You are expected to raise your concerns through appropriate feedback mechanisms that exist to communicate with the University in an honest and open manner

- The University will allocate an academic member of staff to act as a personal tutor during your course and ensure you are informed of who your personal tutor is.

You are expected to engage with your personal tutor throughout your course.

“The best part about Bath Spa University, in my opinion, is that everyone seems to know each other, and that they are always willing to help with everything they can. That goes for both students and teachers alike, who are really friendly and responsive.”
